

Mercy on the Way

Gaze more deeply into three encounters on the Way of the Cross, and perhaps you will find Mercy on the Way

Mercy on the Way

Holy Trinity Catholic Church
Wednesday March 22nd 2017 at 7pm

We continue with our new tradition of offering an evening of prayer and renewal.

Join us for a night of mission and mercy.

Pray with St John Paul II's reflections on three encounters:

- Simon of Cyrene helps Jesus carry the Cross
- Jesus speaks to the weeping women of Jerusalem
- Jesus entrusts his Mother and the beloved disciple to one another

The Jubilee of Mercy may be complete, but the work of mercy on Earth continues.

Each year we come face to face with the Lord on the Way of the Cross. But ...

Does it make a difference?

As Christians, are we prepared to share the Lord's mercy?

Or does the Greatest Story reduce us to spectators?

Plan to join us for an hour of Scripture and music prepared and led by parishioners and our pastoral team. We will have a simple reception following to share bread (of many kinds) and continue the sharing of faith appropriate to this holy season, especially where we have encountered the Mercy of Jesus Christ.
