

Meet John McGannon

If there is a “Mr. Everywhere”, Holy Trinity’s could be John McGannon. If you need to paint a room or tile a floor, John’s your guy. John took an active and leading role in past productions of The Way of the Cross. He is a Eucharistic Minister, and a past Grand Knight of Holy Trinity’s Council 11789 of the Knights of Columbus and a Past Faithful Navigator (Assembly 1540) . He leads the 4th Degree Knight’s color guards and instructs his fellow Knights in the traditions and rituals of that service. On top of all that he serves at the Knight’s dinners and stays to do the pots.

John, Mary and family have been active parishioners in our parish since arriving here in 1992. John’s exceptional service to the Knights of Columbus might be traced to his father, himself a 4th Degree Knight in Wheeling, West Virginia. Mary McGannon’s father, too was a 3rd Degree Knight.

John served 24 years and one day in the Navy, serving on three submarines and three shore duty commands, before retiring from Trident Training Facility in 1997. He met Mary while assigned to the Naval Station, Annapolis, Maryland and they were married in 1987.

When not involved with family or serving the parish in any number of ways, you may find them Square Dancing at the Kitsap Square Dance Center, Gorst, WA. Even though John is retired, you will find him at Wal-Mart's Auto Care Center five days a week.

And he is on the team currently repainting our social hall.

